Haven for College Student Directions: Greek Life

Dear Student,

The faculty and staff of the University of North Texas share your exceptional vision and ambition for all aspects of your life, in and out of the classroom. Your decision to go Greek is a great first step in your personal and professional development, and that of your peers. Greek Life is the cornerstone of a partnership that will last during your years here and beyond.

In an effort to help students address critical life skills they could encounter on this journey, the University of North Texas has partnered with EverFi, whose mission is to help students educate students on the importance of sexual abuse prevention and sexual misbehavior. Haven uses a population-level approach to educate all students on the issues associated with sexual assault and relationship violence, taking into account their unique perspectives and experiences, providing:

- Key definitions and statistics
- Reflective and personalized content
- Bystander skill and confidence-building strategies
- Campus-specific policies, procedures and resources
- Rich data summaries to inform future programming

Each year over 1/2 million students complete Haven for College - their online, non-opinionated, science-based sexual abuse prevention course.

As part of our comprehensive sexual assault prevention program, the University of North Texas will expect all students hoping to become a part of Greek Life to complete Haven. This course will empower you to make well-informed decisions about sexual behavior and help you better cope with the behavior of your peers.
