   i. Read & Question
      1. Motion to open a period of questioning. Seconded.
      2. Sen. Collins; “Previously, was there a cost to join?” Answer:
         Perhaps, but this year there is not a cost.
      4. Sen. Roosa- Asks for the rules on SGA exec. members writing legislation for Senate to review. Answer- The President can draft legislation and since President Cole is unable to make the meeting, the Director of Governmental Affairs is presenting.
      5. Sen. Ashwood- “What are the benefits to joining this Coalition?” Answer- in other states, schools in the coalitions will meet with other members to look over legislation affecting higher education policy so that our state representatives can have an accurate input of students.
6. Sen. Bell- “Would joining this coalition put any restrictions on our SGA?” Answer- No

7. Sen. Collins- brings up that UNT SGA attended last year and came back with the mindset that the meeting was too unorganized to consider joining. “Have you met with anyone this year?” Answer- “No but I have been in contact via email” and the lead person suspects this year will run much more smoothly.

8. Motion to close the period of questioning. Seconded.
