SGA NEWS AND UPDATES:

• SGA held a Vote-A-Thon on April 5th to increase voter turnout in the annual election. Voter turnout hit 11 percent of the undergrad student body, a huge increase from previous elections.

• Lotus Flower Memorial - SGA honored 16 fallen Eagles the evening of April 5th by releasing 16 Lotus Flowers into Jody’s Fountain in recognition of their lives as UNT students.

• Wingspan & I-Heart-UNT Week was a success! Thank you to everyone who participated, especially in the Scavify Scavenger Hunt. The top 10 winners of the scavenger hunt will be announced this week.

• SGA sealed the 125th Anniversary time capsule in the 3rd floor South Lawn entrance of the Union for University Day. Come back in 2014 to see it be opened

“Runoff”

This year’s elections resulted without a majority win by any of the candidates. The top two now face-off in a runoff election. Click here to go to vote in the runoffs!

SGA IN DEPTH:

UPDATES FROM EXEC & EVENTS:

• What a Beautiful Jasmine- April 28 at 7 p.m. in the Union Senate Chambers.

• Take Back the Night- April 28 at 8 p.m. in the Library Mall.

• Eagle’s Nest and Raupe Travel Grant application closed last week! Thank you to everyone who applied!

FRESHMEN INTERN CORNER

“Speak On It” is a mental health fair that aims to break stigmas and educate students on mental health issues. Come join us on Thursday, April 21st from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. There will be games including cornhole, pong, and spin the wheel to earn FREE FOOD rewards! Help make UNT a better place and come learn more about mental health! Location will be on the Campus Greens near Sage Hall

Intern of the Week:

Matt Reyes

ISSUES WE’RE WORKING ON:

• Gender Neutral Housing

• Energy Efficient Campus

• Legislation to approve live broadcasting for future SGA Senate meetings.

FOR MORE INFO, FOLLOW US ON:

@UNTSGA