The Center for Fraternity and Sorority Life
2025-2026 Lookbook

Since 1952, the University of North Texas Fraternity and Sorority community has been a vibrant part of campus life offering a unique and lifelong involvement experience.

WHY JOIN?

When you join a fraternity or sorority, you're not just joining an organization. You're gaining a close-knit family that's got your back through every challenge and every win, academically and personally.

Yes, we have fun. Yes, we make lifelong friendships. But we're also here to level up, building leadership skills, giving back to the community, and creating opportunities that open doors long after graduation.

THE FOUR PILLARS

1 Academics

Chapters promote academic success through GPA standards, study hours, and scholarships.

2 Leadership

Each chapter provides leadership opportunities within the chapter and campus-wide roles. Conferences and retreats further develop leadership skills.

3 Service & Philanthropy

Service and philanthropy are central to fraternity and sorority life. Chapters plan philanthropy weeks, manage charitable campaigns and give back to the community.

4 Sisterhood & Brotherhood

Brotherhood and sisterhood are bonds and friendships unique to the fraternity and sorority experience. It's a community that lasts beyond your time on campus.

GREEK COUNCILS

Collegiate Panhellenic Council (CPC)

The governing body of the eight National Panhellenic Conference affiliated sororities at UNT. The council enables the sororities to work together more effectively on campus.

Interfraternity Council (IFC)

The governing body of the 12 IFC fraternities on campus. The IFC promotes shared interests and values of member fraternities.

Multicultural Greek Council (MGC)

The overarching entity representing the recognized culturally based fraternities and sororities. MGC membership is open to all students, regardless of cultural background.

National Panhellenic Council (NPHC)

Known as the Divine Nine, NPHC is comprised of nine International Greek letter sororities and fraternities. The NPHC engages in cooperative programming and initiatives across its sororities and fraternities.

MISSION

The mission for the Center for Fraternity and Sorority Life is to enhance student development through membership in fraternity and sorority life organizations. Students are encouraged to emphasize academic excellence, philanthropic participation, personal development, and social development. We strive to create a unified campus through positive relations with the administration, faculty, and all CFSL and non-CFSL student organizations. Through these endeavors, we strive to complement UNT's mission.
