S2022-B5 - Hair-Art Expo

BACKGROUND: The Student Government Association will be collaborating with the Progressive Black Student Organization to host a Hair-Art Expo, which will be an interactive, entertaining, and informational event that gives POC students the ability to learn the importance of caring for their hair, barber shop and salon ethics, and dealing with discrimination towards Afro-centric hairstyles in the workplace. There will also be a competition between three barbers from Bladesmith Barber School and students who are in attendance will vote for the best haircut. To show appreciation towards the owner of Bladesmith Barber College, and its students, the owner of Reflections Hair Salon, and any student in attendance for their participation in this event, SGA will be providing free food.

THEREFORE, LET IT BE RESOLVED, The SGA hereby allocates $512.00 from the Director of Diversity & Inclusion’s General Programs budget. This will come from the Spring 2022 budget to purchase the Hair-Art Expo’s Verde order.
