S2022-W3 – Motion to Amend S2022-B2

WHEREAS, The question, as it stands, encompasses the entire Constitution.

WHEREAS, Separating the question, while respecting the inter-connectedness of the Constitutional proposal, would allow for the possibility of certain parts of the Constitutional proposal to be enacted without sacrificing another part of the proposal.

WHEREAS, Too many questions would create voter fatigue and would be counterproductive to the purpose of splitting the question.

WHEREAS, An inconsistency was identified in the constitutional proposal regarding the President’s ability to nominate Inspectors General.

WHEREAS, There are some numbering inconsistencies that should be addressed.

LET IT BE RESOLVED THAT, The following amendment be made to S2022-B2:

“Do you authorize the SGA to amend the undergraduate Student Constitution with the following changes to the Preamble and Article I?

Yes
No”

“Do you authorize the SGA to amend the undergraduate Student Constitution with the following changes to Articles II, III, IV, and VI?

Yes
No”

“Do you authorize the SGA to amend the undergraduate Student Constitution with the following changes to Articles V, VII, VIII, and IX?

Yes
No”
LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED THAT, The following amendment be made to the constitutional proposal in S2022-B2:

Article IV: The Executive Branch

Section 5: Duties and Powers of the President

A) The President shall be empowered to appoint Supreme Court Justices, and the Advocate General, and Inspectors General.

LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED THAT, The following amendment be made to the constitutional proposal in S2022-B2:

Article VIII: Amendments to this Constitution

Section 1: Proposal of Amendments

E) Changes may be made to grammar and syntax problems in this document with notification to all active members of the SGA, pending the absolute two-thirds (2/3) approval of the Senate. Such changes will not alter the meaning of this document.

LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED THAT, The Speaker of the Senate be authorized to make any grammatical and formatting corrections before approval by the Senate.

Respectfully Submitted,

Senator Beige Cowell
