Message from the Vice President

As we complete the fall semester and prepare for the winter break, I want to thank everyone for your hard work. This has been an incredibly busy yet successful semester thanks to all of your efforts and dedication.

I want to thank everyone who participated in my listening tour this semester as well. I thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity to connect with all of you and hear your questions, comments and suggestions for the division. The most common themes were:

- The university’s plans for enrollment and facilities
- How to respond to increases in the needs of students with limited resources and space
- Future plans for the DSA (offering more services online or at satellite campuses)
- Professional development and how to advance here at UNT
- Merit increases
- Status of filling open DSA positions

In the spring, I will be examining everything that was discussed and keep you updated on any new initiatives as we continue to adapt to the changing needs of our students. Remember that you can send a message or submit your thoughts anonymously anytime though the division’s contact page.

I hope you all enjoy the much-needed winter break and time to spend with your families and loved ones. Get plenty of rest and be prepared for an active spring semester as we welcome back our students for the remainder of the 2017-2018 academic year.

Sincerely,
Elizabeth With, Ed.D.
