WHEREAS, Part D is talking about emergency status, but E is in reference to adding something on the agenda, and this warrants clarification.

LET IT BE RESOLVED THAT, The following changes be made to the UNT SGA By-Laws: Bylaws Article 2, Section 2

D) Legislation may be considered by the Senate following the first reading if Emergency Status is granted by the Speaker of the Senate or by a simple two thirds (2/3) majority vote of the senate.

E) Emergency Status may be granted by the Speaker of the Senate or by a simple two thirds (2/3) majority vote of the Senate in extreme situations in which meeting of the filing deadline is impossible.

E) Items wishing to be added to the agenda may be granted by the Speaker of the Senate or by a simple two thirds (2/3) majority vote of the Senate.

LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED, the following changes made to the UNT SGA By-Laws take effect immediately in order to clarify Emergency Status voting procedure.

Respectfully Submitted,
Senator Zane Motlagh
