

Reaffirming Support Resolution S2017-R3

WHEREAS, the Student Government Association stands in solidarity with students, staff and faculty members of the UNT community affected by the recent executive order.

WHEREAS, the University of North Texas continues to be an institution that welcomes and values diversity and inclusion.

WHEREAS, the Student Government Association stands against any actions that discriminate against members of the UNT community on the basis of identity, nationality, religion, or immigration status.

LET IT BE RESOLVED THAT, in the midst of the uncertain atmosphere caused by the recent executive order, we continue to maintain and reaffirm support for the students, staff, and faculty members that are affected.

LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED THAT, the Student Government Association encourages any member of the UNT community that is affected by the recent executive order to utilize the multiple resources available to them, such as the Student Legal Services Office, Multicultural Center, UNT International Office, Student Counseling Services, and UNT Psychology Clinic.
