R2018-R7—Language Building Renovations

WHEREAS, study of a foreign language is key to many degrees offered at UNT and to participation in the globalized workforce,

WHEREAS, the process of language-learning requires significant study time as well as collaboration with other language students, tutors, and native speakers,

WHEREAS, the language building lacks well-organized or properly-lit study spaces and is furnished with a host of mismatched, broken, and unsuitable furniture,

LET IT BE RESOLVED THAT, the Language Department and College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences work with facilities to consider the costs of refurbishing the study space on the first floor of the language building, including new desks in the tutoring lab and hallway that facilitate collaboration among students,

LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED THAT, the Language Department and College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences also consider renovations to improve the lighting and atmosphere to be conducive with a healthy study environment,

LET IT BE FURTHER RESOLVED THAT, this resolution be delivered to the Head of the Language Department, The Dean of the College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences, and UNT Facilities.

Respectfully Submitted,

Rachel Shafer
