VI. Old Business

a. Meeting Minutes Approval
  i. January 30th
  ii. Approved by unanimous consent

  i. Motion to open the period of discussion
    1. Senator Lovett: Is it possible to add wording to define who’s job it will be to update the website.
    2. Senator Warren: Would it not be possible to have a mass email list to send to every member of SGA?
    3. Senator London: If we weren’t already sending an email to everyone in the senate then there is no purpose. By uploading it on the website every student can see it, not just SGA.
  ii. Motion to close the period of discussion

iv. Bill passes 24-4

VII. New Business

a. S2019-R1 – Discounted Gynecological Services for Women’s History Month—Presented by Daniel Ojo
   i. Read & Question
   ii. Motion to open a period of questioning
      1. Senator Warren: Why are you only asking for a week of discounted services?
         a. Senator Ojo: it would not by economically possible
      2. Senator Lockhart: Can you still have access without insurance?
         a. Senator Ojo: Yes, everyone, with or without university insurance has access?
      3. Senator Daniels: Can this be extended to the necessary medications?
         a. Senator Ojo: I didn’t ask about it, but from my knowledge, the medications are cheap
      4. Senator Mehta: What does the discount look like?
         a. Senator Ojo: They will crunch numbers to try to make it as cheap as possible without incurring loss
      5. Senator Lockhart: When will the exact discount be known?
         a. Senator Ojo: I am not working with specifics, this resolution is meant to push them to follow through
      6. Audience member Devin: Since we pay a student service fee for medical services, why is this not always discounted?
         a. Senator Ojo: The fee allows us to see a practitioner but does not pay for the lab tests which are done outside of Chestnut 7. Senator King: Can we expand this further?
a. Senator Ojo: We could, but I feel for now it is salient that we pass this in time for Women’s History Month

iii. Motion to close a period of questioning
