

Searching for Events to Attend

Are you looking to get involved? Finding events is simple! Not only can you peruse www.calendar.unt.edu for University events, but you can also search our database of student org events.

To search our list of upcoming events, click here. You can search by name, dates, themes, category (e.g., academic and professional, sport club, religious/spiritual), or perks.

Note: If you are not logged in, you will only be able to see events that are public.

If you want to see additional information about these events, as well as a list of events recommended specifically for you, click the blue "Sign In" button in the top right corner here.

On your Community home page, you will see upcoming public events from student organizations and even some campus departments.

Holiday Closings
In commemoration of Independence Day, Hometown University will be officially closed on July 4.

Ready for Summer!
Classes might have stopped, but campus programming hasn't! Check out the Events page to see what we have planned for the summer.

Re-register your organization
The Fall semester will be coming soon, which means it's time to re-register your organization on campus. Stop by the Office of Student Involvement's organization page for more information.

By default, the current week's events will be displayed, but you can click on any date on the calendar on the left side of the page to jump to a different week.

To view events more specific to your interests, you can also filter by categories, themes, and perks to narrow down your search. Event Categories allow you to search for events that fall under a certain area of interest you might hold. Themes are more general, such as Arts, Learning, Social, or Cultural. Filtering by Perks allows you to see events that have free food, free stuff, or the option to receive class credit.
